

If more students were present in the classrooms (following all required safety guidelines), would you be more likely to have your child attend in-person?

552 responses

If you answered "yes" above, would you be able to provide transportation on the days your child currently is virtual?

469 responses

If more students were present in the classrooms (following all required safety guidelines), would you be more likely to have your child attend all-remote?

552 responses

